

Genoa Methodist Church

by
E. LeRoy Grimes

This is a picture of the Genoa Methodist Church, which was built in 1880. This picture taken in 1950, just a short time before it was torn down. (Photo by E. LeRoy Grimes.)

H.W. Miller and Emily his wife to J.C. Phillips, John Miller, Sam. J. Phillips, E.A. Kerschner, Mrs. W.W. Shepherd, Robert Montieth, and Thomas Norris, trustees, for church purposes. To be kept and maintained as a place of Divine worship. situated on Lot 2-3, block 4 in the town of Genoa, Ia. consideration $50.00

The church was built in 1880 at the corner of 3rd and Main St., Other description, S.E., S.W., N.W., Sec. 13,67,20, Monroe township. The church was torn down shortly after 1950.

Trustees in 1935 were K.K. Phillips, W.S. Nye, and M.E. Weist.

Pleasant View Or Center

by
E. LeRoy Grimes

This is a picture of the Pleasant View Evangelical United Brethren Church, which stood approximately four miles west of Genoa. The land for this Church and the Cemetery, adjoining the Church, came from Mahlon Allred in 1887. The Church was torn down in 1950. (Photo by E. LeRoy Grimes)

The Pleasant View Evangelical United Brethren Church, often called Center Church stood approximately four miles west of Genoa, at the west side of the N.W., N.E., Sec. 17-67-20, in Monore township.

The land for this church and the Cemetery, adjoining the church, came from the Mahlon Allred's in 1887. the church was torn down in 1950. Rev. Howard Mintle was pastor in 1935.