

New York Methodist

by Warren H. Burton

The New York Methodist church was built about 1874, on the south side of the road almost directly south of the Christian church. It was built on Lot 21, Block 6 on the west side of Washington street and faced the north.

It was torn down in 1913 and the material used in the building of a parsonage in Millerton.

Corydon United Brethren

by Ortha Green

The United Brethren church was established before 1855, for it was in that year that they began building a church. It was never finished. They sold the property and building to the Methodist Church in 1857.

From Wayne and Appanoose County History.

Lineville Christian Church

by Ortha Green

The Christian Church of Lineville was organized April 3, 1878, but they did not have a church building. They met for worship in the Ockerman Hall. Their membership was 47. The Sunday School superintendent was Elder L.H. Otto. This organization has been gone for years.

From Wayne and Appanoose County History.