ACT I.

Cicero's House.

Cicero is heard practising an oration. Terentia laments her fate as an orator's wife. Cicero enters. He criticises young Cicero's school-report. Young Cicero declaims.

Lucius Piso asks Tullia's hand in marriage for his son. The parents give their consent, and Tullia hers, reluctantly. Betrothal follows.

ACT II.

Cicero's House

SCENE I.

The Pontifex Maximus and Flamen perform religious rites. Tullia promises. The Pontifex prays to Juppiter; the Flamen, to Juno. Congratulations.

SCENE 2.

Gaius Piso with show of force takes Tullia from her mother. The wedding-cake is eaten.

ACT III.

Gaius Piso's House.

The wedding procession comes up the street. The bride is lifted over the threshold. Gaius gives Tullia the house-keys. Tullia kindles a fire on the altar, then tosses the torch to a lucky girl. Tullia prays to Juno.
